JUST PICKS HIS TEETH.
Some men pick a banjo,
Some men pick a harp;
Some pick a safe door
And do it quick and sharp.
Some men pick a tattoo
And sketch beneath your skin;
Some men pick a padlock
With just a common pin.
Some men pick the street bed
And use an iron pick;
Some men pick your pockets
And pick 'em very slick.
But the man who is most common
Around our native hearth,
Is the man who stands for hours,
And simply picks his teeth.

It is a curious fact that red-haired people are far less apt to go bald than those with other colored hair. The average crop on the head of a red-haired person is only 25,000 hairs. Ordinary dark hair is far finer, and over three dark hairs take up the space of one red one; 105,000 is about the average number of hair-follicles in a man's head. Fair-haired people are still better off. 140,000 to 160,000 is quite a common number on the scalp of a fair-haired man or woman. A curious calculation has been made to the effect that the hairs on the head of a fair-haired person, if they could be plaited, would sustain a weight of something like eighty tons, equaling that of 500 people.

THE LEDGER is requested to print the following letter which is self-explanatory:

MAYSVILLE, KY., February 8, 1890.

Mr. Davis, Editor of Ledger—Dear Sir:

You will please correct article, concerning Limestone School, in yesterday's Bulletin. That Dick Coleman episode is one of the most malicious frames ever invented. There is no foundation whatever for it. The child mentioned has been suffering from a nervous trouble, caused through no fault of Limestone schoolchildren or teacher. Either the Limestone correspondent has been misinformed or is maliciously inclined to slander. In hopes that friends or patrons of the school may be deceived, I feel it my duty to correct same. Very respectfully,

MARYANN MURPHY.

THE LEDGER'S telegraphic news service does not close until 5 o'clock a. m. of the day on which it is printed. It is always "on time," and thus far has never been necessary to fill the columns with miscellany owing to non-arrival of the news. Other papers furnish dispatches that are dated a day behind, because the "news" is a day old. Once more,—"THE LEDGER is the leading paper!"

Special Request.

IF in inserting advertisements appearing in the columns of this paper, or when buying goods from a merchant whose advertisement appears in this paper, our readers are especially requested to state that they saw the advertisement in THE PUBLIC LEDGER. This will cost you nothing, and it will be gratefully appreciated by both the advertiser and the publisher.

False Economy.

Ask the Merchant who does not use the columns of "THE LEDGER" why he does not advertise, and nine times out of ten he will tell you that he can't afford it. Foolish man! Let him try the experiment and unless all experience fail he will get his money back fourfold. Say you try it!

A. J. Toneray, indicted for failure to list property for taxation, acquitted at former trial and appealed by the Attorney for the state, yesterday presented in the Circuit Court a pardon from Governor Taylor. The County Attorney objected to the pardon; but Judge Harboison said it would all go to the state and ordered Mr. Toneray discharged.

The F. F. V. Two-Step March is being played by all the bands and orchestras in Cincinnati. It is catchy, has the full swing and is up-to-date. Piano parts, 10 cents. Full band or orchestra parts, 30 cents. Send stamps or coin to G. G. Johnston, Allen Building, Cincinnati, O.

The C. and O. has the contract for taking the Second United States Infantry—243 men and officers—to Washington, leaving Cincinnati this morning at 9 o'clock by special train, consisting of one standard Pullman sleeper, seven tourist sleepers and one baggage car for equipment. The troops which are quarters at Ft. Thomas go to Washington to participate in the funeral of Brigadier General Lawton, and will leave the Capital immediately after the funeral for home. Captain B. W. Atkinson is Quartermaster General in charge, and the troops are under command of Captain Wolcott.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has made a memorial record in Frankfort in the last week. They have sent out on an average of 100,000 words a day to the various newspapers, from 10,000 to 1,000 private telegrams sent or received every day. All this work was accomplished by a force of fifteen men. It is probable that the city in America of its size has had such a flood of telegraphic matter sent out in the period of a week as has been wired from Cincinnati. The biggest record ever had before in one day was 38,000 words, the day that Colson was shot.

TRAXEL—CROWELL.

Pretty Wedding Yesterday Afternoon at the Bride's Home.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Crowell on East Second street was the scene of a quiet home wedding yesterday afternoon, when at 2:30 their eldest daughter, Miss Lida C., became the wife of Mr. William L. Traxel, the Rev. Howard T. Cree of the Christian Church performing the ceremony. There were no attendants and only the relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties were present.

Both bride and groom are among Maysville's most estimable young people, and their many friends unite in wishing them a happy voyage through life.

Mr. and Mrs. Traxel left for a Western bridal trip, Mr. Louis being the objective point, and on their return will take up their home here.

THE LYING "POST."

A Gentleman of This City Misrepresented by the Cincinnati Sluicagate.

Yesterday's Cincinnati Postholde had a good-and-better "special" from this city saying that Mr. O. E. Collins had just returned from Frankfort, and that Governor Taylor had told him that the latter intended to sign the Louisville agreement or any other agreement."

This is a lie out of whole cloth; but it is as near the truth as that sheet ever gets.

Mr. Collins, after his return from Frankfort, did not see the paper's correspondent; however, Taylor, now made such declaration to him, and if he had Mr. Collins would have been too honorable to impart the fact to any one—much less to a newspaper correspondent for a sensational newspaper.

But the Postholde lives and fattens on falsehoods.

The foregoing statement is made by authority of Mr. Collins himself, and his Postholde address is well known.

Captain Charles Menges, Superintendent of Coal Harbors and Harbor Towing for the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company at Cincinnati, discovered a very dangerous obstruction to navigation. It is a sunken fuel flat, and lies almost directly in front of the Bromley wharf. It is about one-third the width of the river from the Kentucky shore, and is directly where the boats now run to keep out of the ice. Captain Menges found the obstruction when there was only two feet of water over it. The flat was sunk by the Enterprise some time ago.

August Flower.

"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houston, "that in my travels in all parts of the world for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Dr. August Flower than any other remedy for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and business men, or for persons filling office positions where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Dr. August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use, and is excellent for our stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottles free from C. Freese's Dispensary. Sold by all dealers in all civilized countries.

"No Compromise With Dishonor!"

HAVING done its worst—or worst—to bolster up the election law that it opposed in the most unparliamentary terms—now in order for The Courier-Journal to urge the repeal of the Goebel law and the substitution of the measure offered by Hon. EMMETT ORR as one equally non-partisan.

Governor TAYLOR is to accept a "no compromise" contingent upon the repeal of the Goebel Law and the passage of an honest election law. THE LEADER commends the measure offered in the House by the Hon. EMMETT ORR as the fairest and most equitable. Although offered by a Democrat, it is strictly non-partisan. No Democrat could ask more;—no Republican should accept less.

Has Mr. BRYAN noted the recent action of the Southern Hosiery Spinners' Association at Charlotte, N. C.? The meeting represented 75 per cent. of all hosiery spinners of the South, and they adopted resolutions setting forth the necessity of maintaining an open policy in China, the restoration of order in the Philippines by this Government, the construction of the Nicaragua Canal, and other matters. This is only an instance of the attitude of the entire textile industries in the South.

The recent financial disasters, which are largely the result of injudicious loans upon watered stock, are liable to throw the Trust "promoters" out of employment and permanently check these speculative prices, which have brought reproach upon many legitimate business consolidations required for the economical production of articles of consumption. Legitimate consolidation of interests to reduce the cost of production, and so reduce the price to consumers, is quite a different thing from the indiscriminate organization of enormous concerns with inflated stock for speculation purposes only, and the public will quickly discriminate between the two systems.

HERE are a few notes from a single issue of Bradstreet's, that of December 9th, 1899: "Wages of employees in the cotton mills in Augusta, Ga., are to be advanced January 1st. Pennsylvania Industries are employing 300,000 more persons than they were a year ago; 100,000 New England cotton-mill operations have received an advance of 10% in wages; the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company has given the yard conductors and trackmen a 10% increase in wages; about 2,400 workers in the watch factories at Elgin, Ill., are to receive an increase in wages January 1st." Let's see; who was it who said that it's better to open the mills than the Mint?

PEOPLE who assume that the admission of sugar from Porto Rico free of duty would interfere with beet-sugar production in the United States will be interested in the fact that the beet-sugar producer has made rapid gains on cane-sugar growers under all sorts of circumstances during the past few years. In 1854-5 the total beet-sugar crop of the world was but 182,000 tons; by 1864-5 it had reached 536,000 tons; in 1874-5 it was 1,219,000 tons; in 1884-5, 2,545,000 tons; in 1894-5, 4,792,780 tons; and in 1899-1900, 5,510,000 tons. In 1854-5 beet sugar formed 13% of the world's total sugar crop, and in 1899-1900 it formed 66%. Thus the sugar-producing area of the world has in less than a half century been shifted from the tropics Northward, and the farmer of the temperate zone has shown his ability not only to compete with the low-priced labor of the tropics, but in doing so to reduce by one-half the cost of the article produced.

THE showing made by the House of Representatives on the Goebel question is not encouraging to Democrats. The House passed the Gold Standard Measure by a vote of 190 to 150, every Republican member and 11 Democrats voting aye. The vote for this bill represents two-thirds of the people of the United States, and the next Presidential campaign will undoubtedly start with the Gold Standard as the law of the land.

PEOPLE who are hearing the "plots" and "combinations," and asserting that they are intended to injure the interests of the workmen and of the country at large, will perhaps be surprised to know that the exportations of manufactures of iron and steel, controlled almost necessarily by great combinations of capital, are this year by far the largest in our history. The total exports of iron and steel in the calendar year 1899 will, according to the Bureau of Statistics of the Treasury Department, exceed $100,000,000, an increase of nearly or quite $20,000,000 over last year, and this in the face of the advance in wages of workmen, prices of material, and a general improvement in the earning capacity of those connected with the iron industry.

NEWS IN KENTUCKY.

CLEW TO THE ASSASSIN.

Peoria Police Think They Have Found a Solution to the Great Kentucky Tragedy.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 8.—The police of Peoria have unearthed what they think is a clew to the assassin of Mr. Goebel, of Kentucky. A young man arrived in the city last fall whose name was George F. Ahlers, claiming that his father was a member of the firm of Hoffman & Ahlers, 413 East First street, Cincinnati. He claimed Kentucky as his home, and when under the influence of drink was easily excited and would wound himself into a violent passion while discussing politics. He said repeatedly that it was his evidence that requited Mr. Goebel of the charge of murder.

It was very bitter in his denunciation of Goebel and offered to bet large sums of money that Goebel would be assassinated before he reached the gubernatorial chair. He said a near relative of Goebel's victim was pledged to kill the governor, but in case he failed to keep his word others would not fail. He had left Peoria some time before the Kentucky tragedy and his present whereabouts are not known.

THE BUYERS' GUIDE.
ATTENTION,
Tobacco Growers!

It is a fact that a Tobacco Transplanter will pay for itself in one year on four and one-quarter acres of tobacco.

Tobacco Growers..... OF THE White Burley District!

Who have experimented with both hand and machine planting are agreed upon this point. REMEMBER that when set by hand the tobacco plants stand still about three days, then it goes backwards about two weeks and then it begins to thrive and grow, provided the weather is reasonable. When set out by a good transplanting machine the tobacco plant thrives and grows from the very moment it is set out, because a large furrow is made into which is dumped a quart of water around the roots of the plant and then dry dirt is gathered up and pressed around the stalk. This prevents ground baking and withering plants. They thrive and grow from the moment they enter the ground—give you a good stand and an early crop. Prepare ground properly, set your crop with a good transplanting machine and you need fear no frost, for your crop will be earlier than the earliest frosts. Tobacco Growers of the White Burley District who have experimented with different kinds of transplanting machines have all agreed that the

"MAYSVILLE, KY., June 20th, 1899. "This is to certify that I have seen and worked the Hemis, Tiger and Nagley Transplanters, and can cheerfully say that the Nagley will work better and handle easier in all kinds and conditions of ground than either of the others. The Nagley will turn in 15 (fifteen) feet of space than any other machine made. The Nagley is perfect, always works, never gets out of fix. The plants thrive from the minute they are set out, the best stand of plants I ever saw. My neighbors are all wild over the work of the Nagley. I would not trade my Nagley for a barnyard full of Tiger and Hemis machines. Signed, THOS. KUBEL."

 The Vulcan Chilled Plow is absolutely the strongest, best-made, easiest-handled and most efficient plowing plow that you can put your hands on. That is a rather strong statement, but I mean just what I say. You stop your wagon in front of my store. I will put a Vulcan plow on it. You put this plow in dirt and if you ever with me it is your plow; if you do not, I will refund every cent of your money. Is that fair? I think so.

The Black Hawk Corn Planter!
 Touched the heart of Mason county farmers last year! They will want all Black Hawk planters this year because the Black Hawk has no brush to wear out but has a mud-knife that drops one grain of corn at a time. The Black Hawk is guaranteed to set accurately 95% of a mixture of fourteen kinds of corn. The size or shape of the grain does not affect the accuracy of the Black Hawk.

NOT YET DECIDED

Another Conference May Be Necessary Before the Kentucky Problem Is Solved.

THE AGREEMENT REMAINS UNCHANGED

Democratic Members of the Legislature Hold Sessions in a Hotel in Louisville.

Taylor and His Counsel Thoroughly Discuss the Situation, but No Definite Conclusion Is Reached, at Least Not Made Public.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 8.—So far as the situation in the controversy over the governorship of Kentucky is concerned, it is practically no change. Taylor has not yet affixed his signature to the Louisville agreement and although the general opinion is that he will ultimately do so the probabilities are that he will not sign it in its present shape. Taylor himself absolutely refused to make any statement in regard to his probable action in the matter and declined to receive any callers except his legal advisers. Taylor sent telegrams to Gov. Bradley, August E. Wilson, Judge Barr and Attorney Fairleigh asking them to come to Frankfort for a conference. Mr. Wilson was the only one to arrive and he, in company with Judge York and Gen. Dan Lindsay, called on the governor and immediately went into a conference with him. Before going into the conference, Judge York stated that it would probably be a lengthy one, but he did not expect any action to be taken right away.

Every section of the Louisville agreement was gone over carefully, and it is understood that the principal thing under discussion was that section bearing on the passage of a new election law. The repeal of the Goebel law is the one thing most strongly desired by Taylor, and as the language of the Louisville agreement is considered by him altogether too vague as regards this matter, it is considered possible that changes may be made in the way of making the clause more specific before he affixes his signature to the agreement. This, of course, would involve further delay, as it would necessitate a further conference between the republican and democratic leaders who were instrumental in drawing up the agreement at Louisville. Action of this kind, however, was intimated by a prominent republican, although nothing either in confirmation or denial could be procured at the executive office.

Another cause for Taylor's delay in regard to the agreement is said to be the cry of "violation" and "surrender" sent up by the democratic movement as presented to Taylor is understood to be somewhat different from the published agreement. The clause regarding the election law and one or two other matters are much more specific than they are generally understood to be. The democratic movement is strong enough to suit him. For this reason the rank and file of the republican party in the state apparently believe there is something in the claims set up by the democrats, and scores of telegrams have poured in on Taylor in the past few days urging him not to sign the agreement, but to maintain his present position and await further developments.

AS VIEWED IN LOUISVILLE.

Democratic Members of the Legislature Hold Sessions in a Hotel, but Transact No Business.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 8.—The existence of a hitch in the negotiations and speculation as to its probable duration occupied the minds of politicians to the exclusion of everything else. The difference between the representatives of the two parties may be necessary before a final agreement is reached was indicated by the republican movement. The republican movement of the party and some of whom were present at Tuesday night's conference. These included ex-Gov. Bradley, Hon. A. E. Wilson and David W. Fairleigh. The last named was said to be out of the city. The others left by train for Frankfort. They would not talk of the negotiations not being advised as to the particular points Taylor wishes to discuss with them. The republicans of this city are not agreed as to the wisdom of closing the negotiations on the basis of the agreement reached Tuesday night. Postmaster T. H. Baker and some other federal officers think the same should be done. They have been of peace while the press and anti-administration faction of the city believe the fight should be kept up. The latter, or Davis, is expected to hold a meeting at which resolutions were adopted urging Taylor not to sign the agreement.

Mr. John Marshall, republican lieutenant governor, said that so many protests were being made by republicans against the terms of the peace agreement that he was doubtful if it would be signed. He said: "The terms of the agreement as published are taken to be literally correct, while such is not the case. There have been several errors in the published statement. The republican meeting at Music hall is on the idea that an agreement has been published, but it has not been given out correctly."

night's conference and one of the signers of the agreement. He said he was not at liberty to discuss the terms of the document further, nor to indicate in what respect the published reports of it were inaccurate.

A majority of the democratic members of the legislature are in the city, and until Friday at least the headquarters of that body will remain here. About 30 democratic members came down from Cincinnati. Twenty or more have been here since Sunday, while others are at their homes at nearby towns.

Sessions of both houses were held at the Fifth Avenue hotel. Forty members of the house responded to their names and the senate members called that study to order. A quorum not being present, the sergeant-at-arms was ordered to secure the attendance of absent members. The house then adjourned. Similar action was taken in the senate, where President L. H. Carter and 12 members were present.

By Friday it is expected that a quorum of each house will be present. If that is the case the legislature will adjourn to Monday in Frankfort if the peace negotiations are in a satisfactory state. If not, regular business will be taken up and the session will be held in this city. In accordance with the plans which were being carried out Sunday when overtures for a peace conference were made.

Louisville merchants are much disturbed because of the effect of the political agitation of the past few months which has had on their business. At this time of the year numbers of out of town buyers generally come to Louisville to purchase goods. The Merchants' and Manufacturers' association, an organization formed to promote these visits, has received many communications from buyers expressing a purpose to postpone their visits until more peaceful times or to abandon them altogether. Others are facetiously saying that the time is too short, or that the "Winchesters are too rusty."

To correct the impressions that have gotten abroad, the association adopted this resolution: "Realizing the outrageous misrepresentation of conditions alleged to exist in this state this association considers it a duty to the city and state, and the world at large to record the fact that there is not now, nor has there been at any time, any disturbance or interruption to business of any kind in Louisville or any part of the Louisville metropolitan district. All branches of commerce and industry are proceeding in an orderly and uninterrupted manner and will continue to do so in a normal and prosperous condition. We protest against the publication of any reports which represent any other condition than the actual one of existing commercial peace and prosperity."

AT LONDON.

Fifty-two Members of the Legislature There, but the Outcome of the Session Is Unknown.

London, Ky., Feb. 8.—The paramount question in London is what will be the outcome of the Louisville agreement. The republican movement is strong enough to suit him. For this reason the rank and file of the republican party in the state apparently believe there is something in the claims set up by the democrats, and scores of telegrams have poured in on Taylor in the past few days urging him not to sign the agreement, but to maintain his present position and await further developments.

GOEBEL FUNERAL. FIGHTING AGAIN.

TEN THOUSAND WERE IN ATTENDANCE

A Monster Procession Accompanied the Remains to the Cemetery on the Hill.

The Body Placed in a Vault, Where It Will Await the Selection of a Site Suitable for a Grave.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 8.—The funeral services of the late William Goebel commenced at noon in the parlors of the Capitol hotel, and were of a simple nature, attended only by the deceased statesman's relatives and near friends. A prayer was offered by Dr. Mann, after which a solo was rendered by Mrs. Jesse B. Caldwell. This was followed by a short sermon, and the services closed with a prayer by Dr. Schmitt.

The services proper were preceded by a procession in the streets of the city. The procession was headed by a platoon of police, the city council officials, the grand marshal and his aids, and was followed by a band of music, several societies, citizens on foot and the honorary pallbearers. Then came the hearse with the active pallbearers walking by its side, followed by the relatives and friends, officers of the legislature, officers of state, judges and officers of courts and friends in carriages. Following these came several hundred citizens on horseback.

The procession formed in the western part of the city, and after marching through the city, the procession turned east on the main street, and then turned north on the Capitol hill, where the hearse and relatives took their places in the line, and the march was then taken up for the cemetery on the hill.

The services at the cemetery were followed by a quartet; prayer by Elder William Stanley, followed by a solo by Mrs. Jesse B. Caldwell. Dr. T. N. Arnold delivered an address, which was followed by music by the quartet. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Schmitt and Elder William Stanley. These were followed by the solo "America," Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn then delivered an address, which was followed by short talks by Mr. Beckman, Ex-Gov. McCreary, Judge Van S. Pryor, John Trimble and several other friends of the deceased. "Softly Lay Him Down to Rest" was recited by the choir, after which the benediction was pronounced.

Immediately after the benediction, the procession returned to the square in front of the Capitol hotel, where it disbanded.

There was no interment, the body being placed in the vault to await the selection of a suitable site for a grave and monument, which is to be erected later.

It is estimated that over 10,000 people were in the city.

Gen. Buller Has Commenced His Advance For the Relief of Ladysmith.

MEETING A STUBBORN RESISTANCE.

An Engagement Which Lasted Five Days Took Place in the Vicinity of Spiesman's Camp.

The British Gain an Important Position, but Further Advance Is Prevented by the Boers—The Loss Quite Heavy on Both Sides.

Spiesman's Camp, Feb. 7.—3 p. m.—Gen. Buller commenced the advance for the relief of Ladysmith. The naval guns opened at 7 in the morning and a fierce attack was made in front of our position. Three battalions advanced upon the Boers, with six batteries. At 11 o'clock the Boers opened with artillery fire and sent several shells among the British infantry who retired an hour later.

Meanwhile a vigorous attack was made on the extreme right, where an engine expedition constructed a position. Several pieces of cannon hidden among the trees on Zwart's Kop bombarded heavily. The Boers were entirely surprised. At 4 o'clock a high hill, a continuation of the Brakfontein, had been taken. The operations were exceedingly planned. The name of the hill taken is Krantz Kloof.

The bombardment of the Boer position was resumed Tuesday morning. The Boers worked a disappearing cannon from the high Doorn Kloof range, on the right of the captured hill; but the English shells exploded its magazine and the guns was put out of action until late in the day. Musketry fire was intermittent until the afternoon when the Boers made a determined effort to retake the hill. Reinforcements rushed up cheering, the Boers were repulsed and the British advanced along the ridge.

Further Advance Prevented.

London, Feb. 8.—A special despatch from Spiesman's Camp, dated February 7, says: "Our further advance is at the moment prevented, as the Boers enfilade us from their positions on Spion Kop and Doorn Kloof. Our position, although extremely good, is trifling, considering the great importance of the movement just concluded."

Big Gun Case Firing.

Boer Head Langer, Ladysmith, Feb. 8.—Further reports of Monday's fighting at the upper Tugela river show that the British lost heavily at Pont drift, but took an important position on a small kopje, on the Molen drift range, on the right of the captured hill. The British loss is unknown. They are still in possession of the kopje, and the big guns have ceased firing.

TILT IN THE SENATE.

Mr. Dewey and Mr. Pettigrew Contradict Each Other on Philippine Affairs.

Washington, Feb. 8.—A lively tilt was witnessed in the senate today. Mr. Dewey (rep., N. Y.) and Mr. Pettigrew (sil., rep., S. D.), was the feature in the early proceedings of the senate. Mr. Dewey read a letter from the president Schurman, of the Philippine commission, flatly contradicting statements made by Mr. Pettigrew in a speech several days ago, and then commenced questioning the methods of the South Dakota senator in introducing the evidence of such men as President Schurman and Adm. Dewey through the statements of Aguinaldo.

Mr. Pettigrew replied sharply, repeating much that he has said heretofore, but principally retreating the statements which had called forth the denials of both President Schurman and Adm. Dewey.

Discussion of the financial bill was then resumed, speeches being made by Mr. Turner (dem., Wash.), Mr. Aldrich (rep., Conn.), Mr. Allen (pop., Neb.), all in opposition to the pending measure.
